The Power 25 Disclosure

Private Asset Management ("PAM") compiled a list of 25 prominent players in the wealth management and family office space, which was published in the January 2012 PAM Magazine. PAM's wealth advisory editorial board nominated and chose the list of its leading peers and explained why each individual is making their unique mark in terms of thought leadership, education and philanthropy in an ever-changing industry filled with regulation, social media and a growing competitive landscape. The advisory board chose based on the criteria that nominees excelled in thought leadership and levels of influence in their respective fields. This recognition should not be interpreted as reflecting the approval or disapproval of Silver Bridge's services by clients, and is not intended to be indicative of or a promise of future performance.
